Work Experience

Freelance

Web Development and Web Security

January 2018 to Present

Self-Employed
Remote
I work from home doing full-stack website building and website security, I can drop this at any time in place of a full-time job so it will not get in the way.

Web Security Consultant

EDEC

September 2020 to January 2021

Remote
I did security for a company called EDEC which sells security products for a few months, the job was great however I decided to leave and spend time working on personal projects.

Security Vulnerability Expert

Buffalo Trace Distillery

October 2020 to October 2020

Remote
I found a security vulnerability on the Buffalo Trace Distillery which allowed me to access all of the companies data and security cameras, I reported this vulnerability and was hired to fix it.

Full-stack Web Developer

Maltronics - Remote

February 2019 to August 2019

for a cybersecurity product company called "Maltronics" I really enjoyed my time there, however; I decided to leave and pursue something I enjoyed more.
